

The background of the poster is a collage of images from a musical performance. At the top, a shirtless male dancer in a silver headpiece and grey shorts is captured in a dynamic, acrobatic pose. Below him, another male dancer is seen in a similar pose. The bottom half of the image is dominated by a close-up of a male performer with his arms raised, looking upwards, bathed in vibrant pink and purple stage lighting. To the right, a female performer is partially visible, also looking upwards.
